

I believe that it is important for the FCC to continue having the public airways serve the public good by keeping the present rules regarding station ownership. We already have too much monopoly in this field.